From the Parish Priest

Dear Parishioners,

It would be wonderful to be able to keep Mary Immaculate church open for prayer each day, at least in the mornings to begin with. To do this we would need a roster so that at least two people could be in the church while it is open each day. Of course a rostered person could always organise someone else to take their place if they couldn't be there on a particular day. If you are interested in helping with this, which would be so pleasing to Our Lord, please write your details on the roster at the back of the church.

Unfortunately, we have had several people pull out of the Mary Immaculate church cleaning roster for various reasons. Cleaning the church is a practical way of serving others in Jesus' name. Also, in its own way, church cleaning gives real glory and honour to God because the church is God's home where He truly dwells in the person of His beloved Son in the Blessed sacrament. It is humble work like this, done quietly and with love that most pleases the Lord. I would like to appeal to others to please consider taking a turn on the MI church cleaning roster once a month for about an hour and a half. One change we can put in place to assist people with their busy lives is to arrange the roster so that the cleaning can be done at any time during your rostered week instead of just on Saturday mornings. If you can help please call the parish office on 3848 1107.

We now conclude our Reflection from Cardinal Sarah's interview below.

Fr Andrew Wise

You mention "the reform of the reform" which you say you wish for (no. 257): what should this consist of chiefly? Would it involve both forms of the Roman rite or only the Ordinary Form?

Cdl. Sarah: The liturgy must always be reformed in order to be more faithful to its mystical essence. What is called "reform of the reform" and what we perhaps ought to call "mutual enrichment of the rites", to adopt an expression from the magisterial teaching of Benedict XVI, is a spiritual necessity. Therefore it concerns both forms of the Roman rite. I refuse to waste our time contrasting one liturgy with another, or the rite of Saint Pius V to that of Blessed Paul VI. It is a matter of entering into the great silence of the liturgy; it is necessary to know how to be enriched by all the liturgical forms, Latin or Eastern. Why shouldn't the Extraordinary Form be open to the improvements produced by the liturgical reform resulting from Vatican II? Why couldn't the Ordinary Form rediscover the ancient prayers of the Offertory, the prayers at the foot of the altar, or a little silence during some parts of the Canon? Without a contemplative spirit, the liturgy will remain an occasion for hateful divisions and ideological clashes, for the public humiliation of the weak by those who claim to hold some authority, whereas it ought to be the place of our unity and our communion in the Lord. Why should we confront and detest each other? On the contrary, the liturgy should make us "all attain to unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.... Thus, by living in the truth of love, we will grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ" (cf. Eph 4:13-15).

In the current liturgical context of the Latin-rite world, how can we overcome the mistrust that remains between some devotees of the two liturgical forms of the same Roman rite who refuse to celebrate the other form and consider it sometimes with a certain disdain?

Cdl. Sarah: To damage the liturgy is to damage our relationship to God and the expression of our Christian faith. Cardinal Charles Journet declared: "Liturgy and catechesis are the two jaws of the pincers with which the devil wants to steal the faith away from the Christian people and seize the Church so as to crush, annihilate and destroy it definitively. Even today the great dragon is keeping watch on the woman, the Church, ready to devour her child." Yes, the devil wants us to be opposed to each other at the very heart of the sacrament of unity and fraternal communion. It is time for this mistrust, contempt and suspicion to cease. It is time to rediscover a Catholic heart. It is time to rediscover together the beauty of the liturgy, as the Holy Father Francis recommends to us, for, he says, "the beauty of the liturgy reflects the presence of the glory of our God resplendent in His people who are alive and consoled" (Homily for the Chrism Mass, March 28, 2013).

SUNDAY MASS READINGS

First Reading: Malachi 3: 19-20

The day is coming now, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and the evil-doers will be like stubble. The day that is coming is going to burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, leaving them neither root nor stalk. But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will shine out with healing in its rays.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 97

(Said by all)

Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp,
with the sound of music.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn
acclaim the King, the Lord.

Let the sea and all within it thunder;
the world, and all its people.
Let the rivers clap their hands
and the hills ring out their joy
at the presence of the Lord.

For the Lord comes,
comes to rule the earth.
He will rule the world with justice and the peoples with fairness.

Second Reading: Thessalonians 3: 7-12

You know how you are supposed to imitate us: now we were not idle when we were with you, nor did we ever have our meals at anyone's table without paying for them; no, we worked night and day, slaving and straining, so as not to be a burden on any of you. This was not because we had no right to be, but in order to make ourselves an example for you to follow. We gave you a rule when we were with you: not to let anyone have any food if he refused to do any work. Now we hear that there are some of you who are living in idleness, doing no work themselves but interfering with everyone else's. In the Lord Jesus Christ, we order and call on people of this kind to go on quietly working and earning the food that they eat.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Lift up your heads and see; your redemption is near at hand. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 21: 5-19

When some were talking about the Temple, remarking how it was adorned with fine stonework and votive offerings, Jesus said, "All these things you are staring at now - the time will come when not a single stone will be left on another; everything will be destroyed." And they put to him this question: 'Master,' they said 'when will this happen then, and what sign will there be that this is about to take place?' Take care not to be deceived,' he said 'because many will come using my name and saying, "I am he" and, "The time is near at hand."

Refuse to join them. And when you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be frightened, for this is something that must happen but the end is not so soon.' Then he said to them, 'Nation will fight against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes and plagues and famines here and there; there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven.

'But before all this happens, men will seize you and persecute you; they will hand you over to the synagogues and to imprisonment, and bring you before kings and governors because of my name - and that will be your opportunity to bear witness. Keep this carefully in mind: you are not to prepare your defence, because I myself shall give you an eloquence and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relations and friends; and some of you will be put to death. You will be hated by all men on account of my name, but not a hair of your head will be lost. Your endurance will win you your lives.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Memorial Acclamation: Number Three

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

TRADITIONAL MASS ALTAR SERVING

The Oratory is calling upon potential altar servers to serve at the altar at the Extraordinary Form Mass at Mary Immaculate church. All males older than 10 years of age are eligible. Training will be provided. If interested, please contact Br Shawn in person or at: sitientes.sitientes@gmail.com.

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS and ACTIVE PARTICIPATION

For those who sometimes feel lost at Mass and want to learn more about it and how to participate in it, there will be a set of four talks on the Mass and active participation occurring on Saturdays during November. The purpose of the talks is to introduce the average layperson to the meaning of the Mass, its various parts and prayers, as well how to fruitfully participate in Mass. The talks will be given by Br Shawn and Brisbane Oratory Music, following this schedule:

- 19/11 – The Mass of the Faithful.
- 26/11 – Sacred Music and the Mass.

Each talk will take place at 9:15am, after the 8:15am Mass on Saturday, in the music room below the church.
