From the Parish Priest

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we warmly welcome home our four Brisbane Oratory in Formation seminarians. Br Shawn Murphy has now completed his studies at the Toronto Oratory and we congratulate him on being awarded a Bachelor of Philosophy degree. He is now permanently back with us in the community and will study theology fulltime at ACU and, among other things, will also co-ordinate and train altar servers. Br Tyson King is midway through his studies in Toronto but we are very happy that he will also be with us until the end of August when he begins his next semester of studies in Toronto. Br Tyson will co-ordinate the Frassati youth group while he is here with us. Br Conor Power and Br Matthew Buckley are still in their novitiate year at the Toronto Oratory so they can only stay with us for a short time and must depart for Toronto on Monday 30th May.

Please kindly pray for our four seminarians and our whole Brisbane Oratory in Formation community as we come up to our First Anniversary on May 26th, the Feast of St Philip Neri. As previously mentioned, on that day there will be a Solemn High Mass in thanksgiving at 7:00pm in Mary Immaculate church. Afterwards there will be a light supper in Marymac Centre. Everyone is warmly invited to be present with all of the Oratory Fathers and our four seminarians.

Finally, a last reminder about Our Lady Help of Christians. Tuesday 24th May is the Solemnity of Our Lady Help of Christians, patroness of Australia and of the Brisbane Oratory in Formation. Mass that day will be at 6:00am [OF+], 7:00am [EF] and 10:15am [OF]. All the children from Mary Immaculate School will be present for this 10:15am Mass. There will also be a sung [EF] Mass at 6:30pm that evening at St Columba's church, Wilston.

Fr Andrew Wise PP

Our Reflection on the Most Holy Trinity follows:

It is common today for commentators to point out that the three major world faiths are very similar in that they all share a belief in one God: Allah for the Muslim, Adonai (The Lord) for the Jew and 'Abba' God the Father for Christians. While it is true that Christians believe in one God, Christian faith departs radically from Islam and Judaism in its belief that in the one God there are three Persons: God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. Furthermore — and this is an even more scandalous idea as far as the other two faiths are concerned - we believe that Jesus of Nazareth, the Second Person of the Trinity, God the Son, entered time and space and lived as one of us.

Belief in the Trinity is a central mystery of Christian faith. We are baptized 'in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit' (Matt. 28:19), and we are invited to develop a relationship with each Person of the Blessed Trinity. Jesus' life, work, ministry, preaching and teaching all testify to this fundamental truth of Christian revelation. In fact, the doctrine of the Most Holy Trinity could be described as the central mystery of the Christian faith and life, and it is this mystery that we are celebrating and rejoicing in today, Trinity Sunday. For many Christians, the 'mystery' of the Trinity remains just that: a mystery. But the word in this sense is not used to mean a conundrum, puzzle or riddle that is impossible to solve, but a holy and sacred truth which we will only be able to penetrate more deeply if we ask the Holy Spirit to shed his light and truth into our minds and spirits. Instead of saying, 'I can't get my head around the Trinity', we need to say, 'I need God's help to get my head into the Trinity.' In other words, we need to pray, 'Lord, teach me, show me, guide me, lead me into the beauty, glory and majesty of the mystery of your Blessed Trinity.' Try praying the following prayer today: 'O my God, Trinity whom I adore, help me to forget myself entirely so as to establish myself in you, immovable and peaceful as if my soul were already in eternity'

(Blessed Elizabeth of the Trinity)

Sacramental Program

Congratulations to the children in the Sacramental Program who all received Confirmation on Friday, 20th May. Thank you to Bishop Brian Finnigan who celebrated the ceremony and a very special thank you to Fr Armstrong who worked very hard to prepare the children to receive the Sacrament, and who made sure that the night ran smoothly! Special thanks also to Miss Ria McIntyre, our assistant Sacramental Co-ordinator for all her hard work.

The Sacramental Team would also like to thank Annerley Ekibin parishioners for their prayers and support during the Program, with special thanks to the Legion of Mary for the children's beautiful Rosaries.

Parish Statue

For many years a statue of Our Lady has been circulating within the Parish. The late Father Graham Elliot wanted to encourage parishioners to say the Rosary while having the statue grace their home for a week or two. Clem Poncini has been faithfully organising this devotion for the past ten years. The Legion of Mary Praesidium will now take over this role. If you would like the statue to be in your home then please ring Stephanie McClarty on 32773849, Mobile 0432 618 648.

Corpus Christi Fundraiser Raffle: As the Brisbane Corpus Christi Procession this year, on the 29th of May at 2pm, at St. Stephen's Cathedral, is set to cost more than in previous years, the committee have decided to run a raffle to help offset costs. The prizes so far consist of: 1. $200 gift voucher for the Norman Hotel. 2. Two Harp and Violin engagements. This could be either background music for a party or a private concert or even the basis for someone else's fundraising venture! 3. Piano Tuning (valued at $150) 4. $100 cash. 5. Mumm Champagne Gift Pack. 6. J'Adore Perfume (donated by the Saha Family). 7. Brand new, size 12, apple green, Grace Karin formal dress. 8. A two towel gift pack. Tickets are 25 for $50, 10 for $30, 5 for $20, or single tickets are $5 each. If anyone would like to either pre-purchase tickets or donate more prizes, please contact either Michele Adeney 0407 634 043 (horseadeney@gmail.com) or Esther Adeney 0401 744 932 (estherpanda94@hotmail.com).

SUNDAY MASS READINGS

First Reading: Proverbs 8:22-31

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:

The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works. From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being. The deep was not, when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth; before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust. When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries - and the waters will not invade the shore - when he laid down the foundations of the earth, I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 8
(Said by all)

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
the moon and the stars which you arranged,
what is man that you should keep him in mind,
mortal man that you care for him?

Yet you have made him little less than a god;
with glory and honour you crowned him,
gave him power over the works of your hand,
put all things under his feet.

All of them, sheep and cattle, yes,
even the savage beasts, birds of the air,
and fish that make their way through the waters.

Second Reading: Romans 5:1-5

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Gospel: John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Memorial Acclamation: Number One

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.
