From the Parish Priest

Dear Parishioners,

I enjoyed a marvellous day last Sunday as I offered Mass and celebrated the 30th Anniversary of my ordination in the hall with so many of you being present for the occasion. I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks for the many cards, gifts, prayers and good wishes I have received. I am very grateful - Thank you.

Please take a moment to read the important notices below. The final part of Archbishop Coleridge's letter on marriage appears on Page 2.

Annerley Ekibin Parish - Brisbane Oratory in Formation

Catholic Enquiry Group

A new Catholic Enquiry Group is being formed for the Parish and Oratory for adults who wish to enquire and prepare to be received into the Church and become a Catholic. A formation team is being brought together to lead this new group. If you discern a call to become a Catholic and would like more information, please contact Fr Wise at Parish Office on 3848 1107 or just turn up for the first meeting which will be at the Parish Office on Tuesday, 26th September from 7:30pm to 8:45pm.

...that all may be one in Christ Jesus. Galatians 3: 28

Please Note

For Monday 25th September only, confessions will be between 6:30pm and 6:50pm and then continue after the conclusion of the 7:00pm Mass.

Secular Oratory

Regular sessions of prayer, formation and fellowship for laypeople are the backbone of Oratorian work. Beginning in October, the Fathers of the Brisbane Oratory in Formation will begin monthly evening sessions of Secular Oratory for men and women aged 18+.

The sessions will include a short sermon, meditation, prayer and time for discussion - all centred on growth in the Christian life. Secular Oratory begins at 7:30pm in Mary Immaculate church and goes for an hour. The dates for the next few months are:

- 12th October (Men's Oratory), 7th November (Women's Oratory),
- 14th December (Men's Oratory), 6th February (Women's Oratory).

An hour of your time please...

Please be generous in offering your time to keep God's house clean. At present we have only 2 people cleaning Mary Immaculate Church on the first Saturday of the month, 2 on the second, 4 on the third (though this may change in Jan), 2 on the fourth, and a family of 6 on the fifth Saturday. So you can see we need a lot more help. "Many hands make light work" so with at least 6 on each cleaning roster, it would only take about an hour. Please call or text Teresa on 0413 763 256 or email the parish office if you can help. God will bless you for it.

Reflection (Continued from last week)

Is marriage only about two individuals?

Marriage has always been regarded as essentially social, binding families together in new configurations and serving as the basic cell in constructing a human society which has a future. Marriage is a social institution. That's why it's important to speak of the common good when speaking of marriage; it's also why same-sex marriage ideology focuses much more on supposed individual rights than on the common good.

Do gender and biology matter?

Same-sex marriage ideology says that gender difference is a social construct and that it doesn't matter for marriage. It also says that the body, or biology, is of no final significance. This is linked to a denial of "nature" – to a sense that anything may be "natural" or "unnatural". It implies a refusal to accept that there are any "givens" and an insistence that autonomous individuals can make of themselves what they will.

Has humanity got marriage wrong until recently?

Same-sex marriage ideology is a dramatic form of the Western myth of progress which the facts of history have never confirmed. It seems arrogant or ignorant to claim that all cultures through the millennia have been wrong on this fundamental point. Not that every society has got marriage right in every way. But societies have agreed that marriage is between a man and a woman. To disregard this time-tested, cross-cultural wisdom is to succumb to the amnesia which is one of our cultural wounds.

Will the non-Western world eventually catch up with the West?

Non-Western cultures are often perplexed by the push for same-sex marriage in the West, but this isn't necessarily a sign that they are backward or less civilised – even though the West tends to think that the rest of the world, if it isn't like the West, either should be or will be eventually. It may well be that non-Western cultures will help preserve for humanity values which were once fundamental to Western cultures but have been eroded or abandoned.

Are those who don't favour same-sex marriage homophobic and bigoted?

It's possible to oppose same-sex marriage in ways that are respectful and open-minded. But in an ideologically conditioned world of "all or nothing" or "black and white," those who oppose same-sex marriage are often denigrated in an attempt to discredit or silence them. There's a violence in this, which is resistant to the truthful debate we need.

A former Federal minister once claimed that truth counts for little in Australian politics. That may be so. But truth surely counts for much when a society and its political leaders are making decisions about something as fundamentally important as marriage. That's why the claims made by those pushing for same-sex marriage are an unreliable basis for a decision which is much more than political. This debate is about the meaning of marriage, and that's why it's important that everyone have their say in the postal vote. I'll be voting No, not because I wish ill of any kind on those in same-sex unions who have the same need for love and the same right to happiness as anyone else. I'll be voting No because I think it's the only way available of affirming values which are fundamental to true human flourishing and of guarding against unwanted consequences in the long term. A No vote may seem negative but, in a debate where things have rarely been what they seem, No is Yes and Yes is No.

We still have Treasure and Tradition books at the Parish Office awaiting collection.

If you recently placed an order, please collect your book/s during the coming week (Monday to Friday, 9:00am to 4:30pm) or phone Shirley on 3848 1107 to arrange an alternative.

If you have not ordered a copy of this beautiful book, but would like one, we now have several more copies available for sale. Please phone the Parish Office as above to reserve your copy.

MASS READINGS

First Reading: Ecclesiasticus 27:30-28:7

Resentment and anger, these are foul things, and both are found with the sinner. He who exacts vengeance will experience the vengeance of the Lord, who keeps strict account of sin. Forgive your neighbour the hurt he does you, and when you pray, your sins will be forgiven. If a man nurses anger against another, can he then demand compassion from the Lord? Showing no pity for a man like himself, can he then plead for his own sins? Mere creature of flesh, he cherishes resentment; who will forgive him his sins? Remember the last things, and stop hating, remember dissolution and death, and live by the commandments. Remember the commandments, and do not bear your neighbour ill-will; remember the covenant of the Most High, and overlook the offence.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 102
(Said by all)

My soul, give thanks to the Lord,
all my being, bless his holy name.
My soul, give thanks to the Lord
and never forget all his blessings.

It is he who forgives all your guilt,
who heals every one of your ills,
who redeems your life from the grave,
who crowns you with love and compassion.

His wrath will come to an end;
he will not be angry for ever.
He does not treat us according to our sins
nor repay us according to our faults.

For as the heavens are high above the earth
so strong is his love for those who fear him.
As far as the east is from the west
so far does he remove our sins.

Second Reading: Romans 14:7-9

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life, it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia! I give you a new commandment: love one another as I have loved you. Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 18:21-35

Peter went up to Jesus and said, 'Lord, how often must I forgive my brother if he wrongs me? As often as seven times?' Jesus answered, 'Not seven, I tell you, but seventy-seven times.'

'And so the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who decided to settle his accounts with his servants. When the reckoning began, they brought him a man who owed ten thousand talents; but he had no means of paying, so his master gave orders that he should be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, to meet the debt. At this, the servant threw himself down at his master's feet. "Give me time" he said "and I will pay the whole sum."

And the servant's master felt so sorry for him that he let him go and cancelled the debt. Now as this servant went out, he happened to meet a fellow servant who owed him one hundred denarii; and he seized him by the throat and began to throttle him. "Pay what you owe me," he said. His fellow servant fell at his feet and implored him, saying, "Give me time and I will pay you." But the other would not agree; on the contrary, he had him thrown into prison till he should pay the debt. His fellow servants were deeply distressed when they saw what had happened, and they went to their master and reported the whole affair to him. Then the master sent for him. "You wicked servant," he said, "I cancelled all that debt of yours when you appealed to me. Were you not bound, then, to have pity on your fellow servant just as I had pity on you?" And in his anger the master handed him over to the torturers till he should pay all his debt. And that is how my heavenly Father will deal with you unless you each forgive your brother from your heart.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Memorial Acclamation: Number Two

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Monday night Frassati talk at the Marymac Centre, 8pm on September 18th: Secular humanism & the City of God.
