Dear Parishioners,

The St Vincent de Paul - St Elizabeth's Conference will be holding their annual Winter appeal on the weekend of 2nd and 3rd of June. The generous volunteers who give of their time and energy to the work of "Vinnies", deserve our generous assistance, so that they might be able to continue helping those in need who approach them. Please consider giving generously to this year's appeal. For more details, see the notice below.

Tomorrow, 26 May, feast of St Philip Neri, the community of Fathers and Brothers of the Brisbane Oratory in formation celebrate our three year anniversary. We owe a special debt of thanks to all who've lent us their support materially and spiritually, but, above all, to the Risen Lord who has blessed us, and continues to bless us, with new members and enquirers. We pray that the Lord will continue to pour out in abundance His grace upon us in the years ahead. We will have Solemn Mass at 7pm and refreshments to follow. You are warmly invited to join us.

In Christ,

Fr Scot Anthony Armstrong

St Vincent de Paul Society - St Elizabeth's Conference: Winter Soup and Hot Meals Appeal

Help our Vinnies help those in most need this Winter by providing hot, nourishing meals to deliver to local homes. Non-perishable canned soups and meals are most welcome at any time and may be left at St John Fisher Church for distribution to families and individuals in our community. The St Elizabeth's Conference also has a retiring collection after weekend Masses at St John Fisher Church and invites financial contributions to assist their work.

'Charity is the cement which binds Communities to God and persons to one another . . .'
 St Vincent de Paul

St. Vincent de Paul Society - Mary Immaculate Conference.

She Shouldn't Have to Choose - Between violence at Home, or sleeping on the Street.

This is the theme of the St Vincent de Paul 2018 Winter Appeal. We will launch the 2018 winter appeal in Mary Immaculate Church on the weekend of 2 - 3 June. You will find a SVDP Winter Appeal Envelope on the pews from 2 June or at the back of the church. Non-perishable food items that can provide a meal for a client will also be gratefully accepted.

Thanks to the very generous support from this parish community, the Catholic schools, Princess Alexandra Hospital, Greenslopes Private Hospital and other generous benefactors, in the first 9 months of this financial year the Mary Immaculate Conference has been able to provide assistance in excess of $40,000 to the poor and disadvantaged among us. 50% of this assistance was related to food parcels and food vouchers and 10% was related to assistance with pharmacy accounts. Utility bills are another major issue for those we assist.

We thank you sincerely for your very generous past and ongoing support for the poor in this parish. We would be grateful if you could place your donation in the appeal envelopes on the pews and at the back of the church over the next few weekends. You can place the envelopes in the collection plates, give them to one of the conference members at the door at the end of Mass, or, alternatively you may mail the pre paid envelope with your donation.

Thank you again for your generous donations which assist our conference to help those in most need in this parish. St Vincent de Paul helps people.

Reflection

Let us strive after purity of heart, for the Holy Spirit dwells in candid and simple minds. (St Philip Neri)

On accepting, without becoming troubled, not always being able to maintain one's peace: "Strive to maintain your heart at peace by being even-tempered. I don't say maintain your heart at peace, but I say strive to do so. This should be your main concern. And beware of occasions for troubling yourself, because you cannot moderate so suddenly the ups and downs of your feelings." (St Francis de Sales)

from Searching For and Maintaining Peace, by Jacques Philippe (Sceptre, New York, 2002)

MASS READINGS

First Reading: Deuteronomy 4: 32-34, 39-40

Moses said to the people: 'Put this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth: Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any god ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors - all this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt?

'Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: The Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you for ever.'

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 32
(Said by all)

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love.

By his word the heavens were made,
by the breath of his mouth all the stars.
He spoke; and they came to be.
He commanded; they sprang into being.

The Lord looks on those who revere him,
on those who hope in his love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine.

Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord,
As we place all our hope in you.

Second Reading: Romans 8: 14-17

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 28: 16-20

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

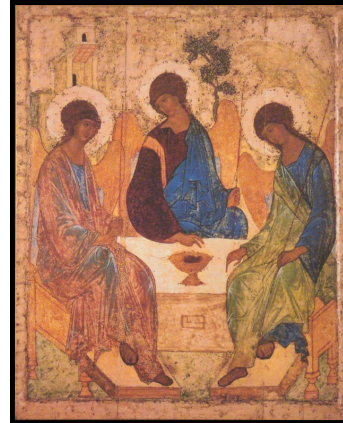

Go therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Memorial Acclamation: Number One

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.
