From the Oratory Moderator

It was wonderful to see such a large crowd at last Monday's Mass with the Archbishop, during which he instituted Brothers Tyson, Conor and Matthew as Acolytes. His Grace commented on the number of people present. Thanks to all who assisted with the Mass, especially the altar servers and choir/musicians, and those who helped with the supper.

The seminarians of the Brisbane Oratory are the future priests of your parish. Given that Oratorians do not move "from house to house", it is probably quite a rare situation for parishioners to assist in the training of the priests who—God willing—are going to serve that parish until death. As we all know, the Oratory is a financially independent body, and is responsible for its own costs, including the costs of training our future priests. We can only do this with your continued help. The forms with a letter outlining the Oratory's financial needs for the next year are once again on the pews this weekend. We invite you to consider making an investment in the future priests who will serve you. Please contact me if I can answer any questions.

The next Secular Oratory for women will take place this coming Tuesday, July 17th. The prayer, and talk to be given by Brother Matthew, begins at 7:30pm in Mary Immaculate church, and concludes with a time of discussion in the library under the church. The evening concludes at 8:30pm. All women are invited.

All are warmly invited to a public lecture to be given by Gerhard Cardinal Müller, former Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. The Cardinal's talk is entitled: Blessed John Henry Newman and an unchangeable deposit of faith. The talk will be given in Marymac Hall, Annerley, next Saturday 21st July, at 7:00pm. The Cardinal is visiting Australia to speak at the annual conference of the Australian Confraternity of Catholic Clergy.

Vespers will be sung next Sunday, 22nd July, at 4:00pm in Mary Immaculate church.

Tickets to the Oratory's Dinner on July 28th, and the raffle, have been selling well. Thank you very much! A reminder that the early-bird price for dinner tickets closes today.

Reflection

The greatest help to perseverance in the spiritual life is the habit of prayer, especially under the direction of our confessor. St Philip Neri

From Time For God:

The life of prayer is not static. It develops in stages and makes progress - progress that is not always in a straight line but sometimes even seems to fall back.

The first great transformation is when prayer passes from the mind to the heart, a simplification which shifts from a more active kind of praying to a more receptive kind of praying. It is a special gift from God, a pure grace, which cannot be acquired by force, but for which we can humbly and trustfully ask. This stage is one in which God's action gradually predominates, the soul keeping itself in an attitude of simplicity, abandonment, and loving, peaceful attention on God. (pp 60-61)

Altar Servers' Sacristy Maintenance

The altar servers' cassocks are well used and so are right now worse for wear and in need of some TLC. We are seeking a volunteer to look after and maintain the altar servers' cassocks and surplices. This includes laundering and ironing them, and tending to any missing buttons or tears. Help in this important task would be greatly appreciated. Please contact Br Shawn at the Oratory house, if you may be able to help.

Oratory Book Club

Tolle et Lege, the Oratory Book Club, will next be meeting on Friday August 3 at 7:30pm at the Parish Office. The book for discussion will be The Brothers Karamazov by Fyodor Dostoevsky. All are welcome.

MASS READINGS

First Reading: Amos 7:12-15

Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, said to Amos, 'Go away, seer; get back to the land of Judah; earn your bread there, do your prophesying there.

We want no more prophesying in Bethel; this is the royal sanctuary, the national temple.' 'I was no prophet, neither did I belong to any of the brotherhoods of prophets,' Amos replied to Amaziah, 'I was a shepherd, and looked after sycamores: but it was the Lord who took me from herding the flock, and the Lord who said, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel."

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 84 (Said by all)

I will hear what the Lord God has to say, a voice that speaks of peace, peace for his people.

His help is near for those who fear him and his glory will dwell in our land.

Mercy and faithfulness have met; justice and peace have embraced. Faithfulness shall spring from the earth and justice look down from heaven.

The Lord will make us prosper and our earth shall yield its fruit. Justice shall march before him and peace shall follow his steps.

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ. Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determining that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins. Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight. He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, the hidden plan he so kindly made in Christ from the beginning to act upon when the times had run their course to the end: that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth. And it is in him that we are claimed as God's own, chosen from the beginning, under the predetermined plan of the one who guides all things as he decides by his own will; chosen to be, for his greater glory, the people who would put their hopes in Christ before he came. Now you too, in him, have heard the message of the truth and the good news of your salvation, and have believed it: and you too have been stamped with the seal of the Holy Spirit of the Promise, the pledge of our inheritance which brings freedom for those whom God has taken for his own, to make his glory praised.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff - no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals but, he added, 'Do not take a spare tunic.' And he said to them, 'If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.' So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Memorial Acclamation: Number Three

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.
