Reflection

We must sometimes bear with little defects in others, as we have, against our will, to bear with natural defects in ourselves. If we wish to keep peace with our neighbour, we should never remind anyone of his natural defects.

St Philip Neri

From CHERISH LIFE

In the news on Monday 16 July, the State Labor Government announced it will adopt the Queensland Law Reform Commission's recommended abortion decriminalisation bill, which would legalise even late-term abortion and sex-selection abortion.

The Attorney-General said the bill would be referred to the Health Committee on 21 August, then be voted on in Parliament in the week commencing 16 October, just 13 weeks from now.

Labor's Termination of Pregnancy Bill would allow abortion to birth, effectively for any reason. Tragically, the personhood of the unborn child is not recognised at all in this legislation.

The main points of Labor's Termination of Pregnancy Bill 2018 are:

1. Abortion on demand up to 22 weeks for any reason, including sex-selection abortion.
2. Abortion past 22 weeks gestation until birth, even for social reasons, if two doctors approve, although the second doctor doesn't even have to see the woman, or look at her file – and there is no penalty if the abortion is performed without a second doctor's approval.
3. Prohibition on any communication against abortion within 150 metres of clinics, which would even criminalise the action of a mother trying to persuade her daughter not to proceed with an abortion, or the action of an unborn child's father offering support to his partner to encourage her to continue with the pregnancy.
4. Doctors with conscientious objections must refer a woman seeking an abortion to another doctor who will be able to facilitate her request, thus making the referring doctor complicit in the outcome.
5. Abortions would be performed in public hospitals (and therefore would be free).
6. There are no safeguards for women seeking an abortion, such as informed consent conditions, cooling-off periods and mandatory independent counselling.
7. Removing most provisions about abortion from the Criminal Code, so there are no penalties for obtaining or providing an abortion in Queensland (other than on an unqualified person performing the procedure).

Altar Servers' Sacristy Maintenance

The altar servers' cassocks are well used and so are right now worse for wear and in need of some TLC. We are seeking a volunteer to look after and maintain the altar servers' cassocks and surplices. This includes laundering and ironing them, and tending to any missing buttons or tears. Help in this important task would be greatly appreciated. Please contact Br Shawn at the Oratory house, if you may be able to help.

REQUEST FOR WOOL: Now that the cooler weather is with us, our parishioner who very kindly crotchets knee rugs for people in nursing homes, is in need of more wool. As long as we can supply her with wool, she will crotchet. Please leave at the back of the Church. Thanks and blessings. Marie Melski. You can contact me at 3848 0338.

Tuesday Rosary: On Tuesdays 24th and 31st of July, the Holy Rosary is recited for those who hunger and thirst for what is right, that they shall be satisfied, and for the Pope, the Bishops and the Priests, through the intercession of Our Lady of Grace. It begins 10 minutes after the 7am Mass in Mary Immaculate Church. All welcome. Enquiries: Legion of Mary on 0421 258 418 (Bill).

WE PRAY FOR: Those who are recently deceased: Carmel LEE, Elwyn THOMPSON.

Those who are sick: Luke ADENEY, Ksenia BORODIN, Rex BOWEN, Joan BRAMMER, Ted BUTTERWORTH, Duncan CARSTENS, Shannon EMSLIE, Jane FARRELL, Bryan FITZPATRICK, Joan FLEW, Anne FRANETTOVICH, Gwen GAIR, Vilma GHOUSE, Bob GILLESPIE, Bronte GREER, Marlene JOHNSTON, Tony LEVICK, Aroha McCORMACK, Marie MITCHELL, Bernie O'HARA, Valerie ORTON, Mila PICKARD, Ron ROFE, Joan ROONEY, Rosa Maria SANTOS, Matt VASIL, Josephine & Bill WRIGHT and Matthew ZEMEK.

All the faithful departed.

MASS READINGS

First Reading: Jeremiah 23:1-6

'Doom for the shepherds who allow the flock of my pasture to be destroyed and scattered – it is the Lord who speaks! This, therefore, is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the shepherds in charge of my people: You have let my flock be scattered and go wandering and have not taken care of them. Right, I will take care of you for your misdeeds – it is the Lord who speaks! But the remnant of my flock I myself will gather from all the countries where I have dispersed them, and will bring them back to their pastures: they shall be fruitful and increase in numbers. I will raise up shepherds to look after them and pasture them; no fear, no terror for them any more; not one shall be lost – it is the Lord who speaks!

See, the days are coming – it is the Lord who speaks – when I will raise a virtuous Branch for David, who will reign as true king and be wise, practising honesty and integrity in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel dwell in confidence. And this is the name he will be called: The Lord-our-integrity.'

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 22
(Said by all)

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit.

He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort.

You have prepared a banquet for me
in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

Second Reading: Ephesians 2:13-18

In Christ Jesus, you that used to be so far apart from us have been brought very close, by the blood of Christ. For he is the peace between us, and has made the two into one and broken down the barrier which used to keep them apart, actually destroying in his own person the hostility caused by the rules and decrees of the Law. this was to create one single New Man in himself out of the two of them and by restoring peace through the cross, to unite them both in a single Body and reconcile them with God. In his own person he killed the hostility. Later he came to bring the good news of peace, peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near at hand. Through him, both of us have in the one Spirit our way to come to the Father.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 6:30-34

The apostles re-joined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then he said to them, 'You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while'; for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat.

So they went off in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going, and many could guess where; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Memorial Acclamation: Number One

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection until you come again.
