Dear Parishioners,

A reminder that our Annerley Conference of the St Vincent de Paul Society is looking for new members. I encourage you to consider joining, and contributing to the apostolate for which "Vinnies" is justifiably well known.

Also, as we've begun celebrating Masses for the repose of the faithful departed, if anyone would like Masses offered for specific individuals, please fill out a Mass request envelope which can be found at the back of our parish churches.

in Christ, Fr Scot Anthony Armstrong

Can you give a hand?

Our St Vincent de Paul Conference is struggling to handle the 15 or more calls for assistance that we receive per week. Too many members have become elderly and infirm so that we may have to reduce the frequency of services (presently five days per week), unless we can attract new members.

It only takes a couple of hours on one day per week, and we have transport available if you don't happen to drive. Women are just as welcome as men in our organisation.

The gratitude of our clients touches our hearts. Best of all, we know that what we do helps our clients to get their lives back on track.

If you'd like to know more about us, please call Janet Murray on 0412 634 314 or Ian Campbell on 0411 179 743.

The Oratory Book Club, Tolle et Lege, will meet next on November 9th (7:30pm, Parish Office) to discuss 'The Rule of St Benedict', written in the 6th century and still in use by Benedictine monasteries today. This month's discussion will be led by Fr Sharp. All welcome.

Reflection

In order to enter Paradise we must be well justified and well purified.

St Philip Neri

The capital vices (continued): Lust and Its Opposite Virtue-Wholeness of Being

The essence of lust lies in the unrestrained and disordered quest for bodily gratification, driven by selfishness at the expense of one's own dignity and the dignity of others. Lust leads to a variety of sins. It is dangerous for the body but also for the soul, because it enslaves a person and destroys the ability to love. Tradition stresses the necessity of constantly struggling against this vice. "Whoever believes the body shall rise again is careful of his robe and defiles it not with impurity; but whoever disbelieves in the resurrection, gives himself over to impurity and misuses his body as though it were not his own." (St Cyril of Jerusalem) The virtue of wholeness of being (chaste self-mastery) orders the sexual impulse through love of neighbour and of self, which restores the harmony body, soul and spirit.

(see Christ Our Pascha, Catechism of the Ukrainian Catholic Church, published in Canada, 2016, numbers 761-3)

The next Secular Oratory for Women takes place this Tuesday evening (Nov 6th), starting at 7:30pm in Mary Immaculate church. Reflection (given by myself this month), personal prayer time, discussion. Concludes at 8:30pm. All ladies of the parish and beyond are welcome.

For catering purposes, ticket sales to the Remembrance Day Ball next Saturday, November 10th, will close this Tuesday. We hope to see you there for an enjoyable social evening. Tickets include food and drinks. Book at: <https://www.trybooking.com/YJZM>

We will make the second annual "excursion to Mt Perry" on Saturday 17th November for the celebration of Mass in the Extraordinary Form at 10:30am in the historic Saint Patrick's church. Singers and altar servers are especially invited if you can make the journey. We hope to have a Missa cantata. Anyone else who'd like to make the pilgrimage would be very welcome. Mt Perry is about a four hour drive north of Brisbane. We visit Mt Perry at the request of Catholics of the area, and it provides an opportunity for people of that region to attend a Latin Mass, something that they don't get to do as easily as us in Brisbane. Last year, people travelled some distance – even from Bundaberg and Hervey Bay – to be able to participate. Please contact me for more information.

Date claimer: the Vallicella Dinner and Dance for 2019 will take place on Saturday 17th August, 6:30pm at Riverside Receptions, New Farm. Please mark your calendars! MASS READINGS

First Reading: Deuteronomy 6:2-6

Moses said to the people: "If you fear the Lord your God all the days of your life and if you keep all his laws and commandments which I lay on you, you will have a long life, you and your son and your grandson.

Listen then, Israel, keep and observe what will make you prosper and give you great increase, as the Lord of your fathers has promised you, giving you a land where milk and honey flow. Listen Israel: The Lord our God is the one Lord. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength. Let these words I urge on you today be written on your heart."

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 17
(Said by all)

I love you, Lord, my strength,
my rock, my fortress, my saviour.
My God is the rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold.
The Lord is worthy of all praise:
when I call I am saved from my foes.

Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be the God who saves me.
He has given great victories to his king
and shown his love for his anointed.

Second Reading: Hebrews 7:23-28

Then there used to be a great number of those other priests, because death put an end to each one of them; but this one, because he remains for ever, can never lose his priesthood. It follows, then, that his power to save is utterly certain, since he is living for ever to intercede for all who come to God through him. To suit us, the ideal high priest would have to be holy, innocent and uncontaminated, beyond the influence of sinners, and raised above the heavens; one who would not need to offer sacrifices every day, as the other high priests do for their own sins and for those of the people, because he has done this once and for all by offering himself. The Law appoints high priests who are men subject to weakness; but the promise on oath, which came after the Law, appointed the Son who is made perfect for ever.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 12:28b-34

One of the scribes who had listened to them debating and had observed how well Jesus had answered them, now came up and put a question to him, 'Which is the first of all the commandments?' Jesus replied, 'This is the first: Listen, Israel, the Lord our God is the one Lord, and you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength.

The second is this: You must love your neighbour as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.' The scribe said to him, 'Well spoken, Master; what you have said is true: that he is one and there is no other. To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and strength, and to love your neighbour as yourself, this is far more important than any holocaust or sacrifice.' Jesus, seeing how wisely he had spoken, said, 'You are not far from the kingdom of God'. And after that no one dared to question him any more.

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Memorial Acclamation: Number Three

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.
