Dear Parishioners,

"The 'Great Sunday' of the fifty days of the Easter Season recalls the time when the Risen Lord manifested Himself to His disciples, culminating in His Ascension and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

The visible manifestations of the risen Lord Jesus terminate in a definitive moment of mission, farewell and departure." (see Ceremonies of the Liturgical Year, P Elliott, Ignatius, San Francisco, 2002, 158-161).

As we celebrate these days between Easter and Ascension, let us reflect on the ways in which the Risen Christ calls and send us into the world of our time.

In Christ,

Fr Scot Anthony Armstrong

Sacramental Program

The Parent Information Night for first Holy Communion will be held at 7pm on Tuesday 14th of May at St Elizabeth's Catholic Primary School, cnr Cracknell Rd & Effingham St, Ekibin.

The classes for the children will be held each Thursday afternoon at 4pm-4.45pm at St Elizabeth's, starting on Thursday 23rd of May 2019 in the same room that was being used last year on the same level, but to the left of, the Christi Centre; the dates for the classes being 23rd May, 30th May, 6th June, 12th June, with the final class on the 20th June. The children will make their first Holy Communion on the Feast of the Most Holy Body of Christ (Corpus Christi) either at the Vigil Mass on Saturday night (22nd June) at St John Fisher Church, or on Sunday (23rd June) at Mary Immaculate Church.

St Philip's Day at Mary Immaculate Church

May 25th: 10:30am – 12:00pm

Reflection

The true way to advance in holy virtues is to persevere in a holy cheerfulness. The cheerful are much easier to guide in the spiritual life than the melancholy. St Philip Neri

The measure of Divine Providence in us depends on the degree of trust we have in it. Do not anticipate the unpleasant events of this life by apprehension, rather anticipate them with the perfect hope that, as they happen, God, to Whom you belong, will protect you. Either He will see that nothing bad happens to you or, if He allows anything bad to happen to you, He will give you the invincible courage to bear it. Remove from your imagination whatever may upset you, and say frequently to our Lord: "O God, You are my God and I will trust in You; You will be my refuge, there is nothing I will fear."

from Searching For and Maintaining Peace, by Fr Jacques Philippe (Sceptre, New York, 2002).

Save The Date: In 1957 Lucia of Fatima spoke with Fr Fuentes " Father, the Devil is in the mood for engaging in a decisive battle against the Blessed Virgin and the Devil knows what offends God the most and which in a short time will gain for him the greatest number of souls. Thus the Devil does everything to overcome souls consecrated to God".

(Our Priests)

On Friday 2nd August (Feast day of St Alphonsus Liguori) the Parish will be asked to pray for our priests and the young men of the Oratory. Full details will follow shortly.

REQUEST FOR WOOL Now that the cooler weather is with us, our parishioner who very kindly crotchets knee rugs for people in nursing homes, is in need of more wool. As long as we can supply her with wool, she will crotchet. Please leave at the back of the Church. Thanks and blessings. Marie Melski. You can contact me at 3848 0338

MASS READINGS

First Reading: Acts 5:27-32.40-41

The high priest demanded an explanation of the apostles. 'We gave you a formal warning' he said 'not to preach in this name, and what have you done? You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and seem determined to fix the guilt of this man's death on us.' In reply Peter and the apostles said, 'Obedience to God comes before obedience to men; it was the God of our ancestors who raised up Jesus, but it was you who had him executed by hanging on a tree. By his own right hand God has now raised him up to be leader and saviour, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins through him to Israel. We are witnesses to all this, we and the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.' They warned the apostles not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. And so they left the presence of the Sanhedrin glad to have had the honour of suffering humiliation for the sake of the name.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 29

(Said by all)

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts but a moment; his favour through life. At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.

The Lord listened and had pity. The Lord came to my help. For me you have changed my mourning into dancing; O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever.

Second Reading: Apocalypse 5:11-14

In my vision, I heard the sound of an immense number of angels gathered round the throne and the animals and the elders; there were ten thousand times ten thousand of them and thousands upon thousands, shouting 'The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and blessing'. Then I heard all the living things in creation - everything that lives in the air, and on the ground, and under the ground, and in the sea, crying, 'To the one who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb, be all praise, honour, glory and power, for ever and ever. And the four animals said, 'Amen'; and the elders prostrated themselves to worship.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Christ is risen, the Lord of all creation; he has shown pity on all people. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 21:1-19

Jesus showed himself again to his disciples. It was by the Sea of Tiberias, and it happened like this: Simon Peter, Thomas called the twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said, 'I'm going fishing'. They replied, 'We'll come with you'. They went out and got into the boat but caught nothing that night.

It was light by now and there stood Jesus on the shore, though the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. Jesus called out, 'Have you caught anything, friends?' And when they answered, 'No', he said, 'Throw the net out to starboard and you'll find something'. So they dropped the net, and there were so many fish that they could not haul it in. The disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord'. At these words 'It is the Lord', Simon Peter, who had practically nothing on, wrapped his cloak round him and jumped into the water. The other disciples came on in the boat, towing the net and the fish; they were only about a hundred yards from land. As soon as they came ashore they saw that there was some bread there, and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you have just caught'. Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast'. None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, 'Who are you?'; they knew quite well it was the Lord. Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead. After the meal Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these others do?' He answered, 'Yes Lord, you know I love you'. Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs'. A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He replied, 'Yes Lord, you know I love you'. Jesus said to him, 'Look after my sheep'. Then he said to him a third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter was upset that he asked him the third time, 'Do you love me?' and said, 'Lord you know everything; you know I love you'. Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. I tell you most solemnly, when you were young you put on your own belt and walked where you liked; but when you grow old you will stretch out your hands, and somebody else will put a belt round you and take you where you would rather not go.' In these words he indicated the kind of death by which Peter would give glory to God. After this he said, 'Follow me'.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
